AUCTION SALES

JOHN S. BEACH,

Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 2, 1902

There is nothing so very difficult in making friends; the trouble is to keep them. Pleasing manners and a taking way will always win admirers, but a lasting friendship must be built upon a firmer foundation than a transitory ntile, an hour of high spirits or even eat physical beauty. Of course it is pleasure to feel that one is favored y some radically beautiful woman, unless there be genuine congeniality between the two concerned the time will come when passive loveliness will cease to be attractive. To retain friend-ship one must be continually on the watch and not let the familiarity that watch and not let the familiarity that comes from a lengthy knowledge of the other's life breed the contempt that so often follows a close intimacy.

To retain either friendship or love the illusions must not be dispelled. Do not, because you feel sure of your ground, let the commonplace enter in and monopolize the everyday affairs. Let the halo of sentiment hover over even the prosaic affairs of daily life, for, once dispelled, they can never form again, and in the one glimpse of the material side of the intimacy may be material side of the intimacy may be utterly destroyed a relation at one time thought to be eternal.

A saug Fit.

An English tourist in the highlands fells the following amusing story: He was traveling one day last summer by rail in the north of Scotland, and at one of the stations four farmers en-tered the train. They were all big, burly men and completely filled up the seat on the one side of the compart-

At the next station the carriage door ed to admit a tall, cadaverous individual with about the girth of a lamp post. He endeavored to wedge himself in between two of the farmers, said to one of them: "Excuse me, sir; you must move up a bit. Each seat is intended to accommodate five persons, and according to act of parliament you are only entitled to eighteen inches of space."

"Aye, aye, my friend," replied the farmer; "that's a' very guid for you that's been built that way, but ye canna blame me if I ha'na been construckit according to act of parlia-cots In American History.

It is a noteworthy fact in American history that of the four members of Washington's cabinet Knox of Massachusetts, the only New Englander, was Scotch-Irishman; Alexander Hamil-on of New York was a Scotch-Frenchman, Thomas Jefferson was of Welsh descent, and the fourth, Edmund Randolph, claimed among his ancestors the Scotch earls of Murray. New York also furnished the first chief justice of United States, John Jay, who was descendant of French Huguenots, while the second chief justice, John dutledge, was Scotch-Irish, as were also Wilson and Iredell, two of the original associate justices; a third, Blair, was of Scottish origin. John Marshall, the great chief justice, was, like Jefferson, of Scotch and Welsh descent—Charles R. Hanna's "Celt In America."

A Choice of Hymns.

When the English troops in South Africa were daily expecting the anmouncement of a peace settlement with the Boer leaders, a worthy dean telegraphed to Lord Kitchener from the Orange River Colony, saying, "As I am the acting chaplain and conducting divine service in many camps tomorrow. wine service in many camps tomorrow, may I ask if the hymn 'Peace, Perfect Peace,' would not be a most approprithe great "K." wired back, "Please yourself, but I think 'Onward, Christian Soldier!' quite as good."

Irish the Language of Lovers. The Irish language is above all others the language of loyers. You may find in French or Spenish or Italian superlatives or diminutives of endear-ment, but you will never find anything so soft, so sweet, so subtle, so sad and sometimes so rapturously extravagant as you will find in the Irish language.

Working Him.

Borroughs—Say, old man, can you break a twenty so I can get a five dollar bill out of it?

Markley-Sure! Here you are. Where as your twenty? Borroughs - Oh, you misunderstood me! I thought you had a twenty. Thanks! One five will do.—Philadelphia Press.

"I suppose," said the supercilious stranger in town, "your city has had its ups and downs notwithstanding its present prosperity."
"Yep," replied the resident cheerfully; "still got 'em-streets being torn ap and old buildings being torn down." Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Old People Have Their Troubles. Mr. Francis Little of Benton Harbor Mich., is over eighty years of age. Since 1865 he has been troubled more Since 1865 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. Last August he began using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and was soon feeling much better. In a recent letter he says. "I have used three boxes of the Tablets and now think I am well." These Tablets improve the appetite and in-Tablets improve the appetite and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels.

The Worst Form.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. For sale by E. S. Leaibeater & Sons.

is the fate of sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion. If your food remains undigested it can't build up the body. In fact, it does actual damage by decaying in the stomach and poisoning the system.

Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could treely go. I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a seming man graspes at a straw I grabed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after sw bottles am sound and well. Groson S. Marsz, Attorney-at-Law, Nocona, Tex.
